1728 IN SPARTANBURG COTTON ASSOCIATION

Seven Cotton Warehousemen to Be Built in the County in Purpose of Organization.

Spartanburg, S. C., Sept. 2.—The Spartanburg Cotton Association, according to reports compiled here this afternoon by John B. Cannon, county chairman, has 1,750 members. The county furnishes 1,554 of these and has paid in dues to the association $2,128.75. The cotton of the city to date brought 196 members with fees paid totaling $2,009.75. In addition to these 27 cotton mills of the county will become members of the association, paying $100 each. It was stated the banks of the county have reported and that the cotton in the county has not been concluded.

Mr. Cannon said this evening the membership in the county would reach 2,750 and that the fee would amount to $10,000.

The campaign of the Spartanburg Cotton Association has been kept for 10 days for the institute purpose of building a system of warehouses in the county owned and controlled by the growers of cotton. The stockholders of the warehouses are company amounts to $150,000 and members of the association have guaranteed $100,000 for this purpose.

It is proposed to build in Spartanburg county seven cotton warehouses, one in the city and six in the country, 25 acres of land each. The warehouse organizations to be perfected within the week under the direction of federal agents.

Cannon, who is in charge of the campaign, has accepted an invitation to speak in New Orleans next week and will be employed in the organization of the association in this county.

SCARCITY OF CARS AND LABOR BOOSTED PRICE OF COAL, SAYS J. D. MORROW

Both Wholesale and Retail Fuel Dealers to Be Called in Government Cost Quiz.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Resuming his testimony today before the senate coal investigation committee, J. D. Morrow, president of the National Coal Association, declared there had been no general increase in prices of the mines during recent months which could not be explained by increased demand and decreased supply caused chiefly by a shortage of cars.

Senator Frelinburgh, republican, New Jersey, told the committee he would submit a number of complaints about prices which had reached him and would call on wholesale and retail coal dealers to appear.

John Callahan, traffic chief of the association, presented several hundred telegrams showing a shortage in practically every bituminous coal district. These indicated an increase in shortage from week to week.

Mr. Morrow pointed out to the committee the relationship of coal shortage and man shortage. Explaining that the market for labor was so uncertain by the scarcity of cars that in many cases the employers, being unable to hold men, were paying bonuses to them when needed.

Renewing his charges against the railway administration, Mr. Morrow said hundreds of cars filled with coal and other refuse were permitted for weeks at a time to stand on the sidings.

Florida Official Quits

Tampa, Aug. 29.—Governor McCall of Florida has resigned, effective September 1, and his resignation has been accepted by Governor Catts. News of the resignation was brought to Tampa today by telegrams reaching here from Governor Catts, who was in Jacksonville, Fla., leaving his return from a trip to the north. The telegram gave no explanation for his action and was directed to the resignation, while confirmed by the resignation also failed to clear up the situation.

It was said to be one of the most intimate who would succeed McCall.

RUMANIA REFUSES TO SIGN PACT WITH AUSTRIA

Paris, Sept. 2.—Rumania will not sign the pact with Austria, according to intramural, because of a clause introduced at the formal request of the American delegation concerning Rumanian minorities. Rumania also takes exception to a clause regulating treaties, commerce and railroad rates.

It was stated that it would be no surprise for her to accept it. The newspaper adds that the resignation of J. J. Bratiano, as premier is imminent.

SHARING THE DEBT OF WAR.

The children of the next generation will have to bear some portion of the cost of the Great War. It is estimated by the War Department that the total cost of the war will be $100,000,000,000. The government has not yet decided how to share the burden of this debt with the people.

It is only by liquidating the business world and the individual citizens, if the republic are to be saved, that the government can meet its obligations. It is easy to understand that the government is in a financial straits and that it is in a financial straits and that it is in a financial straits.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

Now since the hundred election to build streets in Chester is over, we wish to go on record as being heartily in favor of going after that first passenger station the Seaboard promised us some days after the war was over did they let a plan into it? To be sure, no objection. Anyway, we need that passenger station and the only way to get it is to go after it. Now come on boys, all together, and let's land something else.

All the world's now thinking of one and the same thing, the peace capital. As the echoes of the war die away, the sound of a new conflict rises on the air. The industrial world is filled with agitation. Everywhere there are strikes. In some places is seen the portentous appearance of the general strike. Hungary and Central Russia are overwhelmed in social cataclysm. What does it all mean? Is the light in the sky the dawn of a new era, or is it the lurid glare of a conflagration that precedes the eruption of the volcano?

The wheels of industry are threatening to stop. The labor will not work because the pay is too low and the hours too long. The producer cannot employ the labor because the wage is too high and the hours are too short. If the high wage is paid and the shorter hours are granted then the price of the thing so made so it seems, rises higher still. Even the high wages will not buy it. The process apparently moves in a circle with no cessation to it. The increased wages seem only to aggravate the increasing prices. Whether we are drifting?

The News has no idea who will get the contract to do the street improvement work in Chester, but it truly hopes that the city officials will give the contract to some firm who is big enough to do the work promptly. We have noticed in towns where the work was given to small firms that they consume entirely too much time in putting down the streets. They keep the streets torn up for a long length of time, much to the discomfort of the people. Chester needs its streets right now, and we hope for a small profit, get a firm that can do the work and get out of town.

The Chester business men have an opportunity of telling thousands of people in distant parts of the country about the street improvements in Chester. Every letter that goes out from a Chester business man should carry this great message. We would suggest that every business man in Chester have the following printed on his envelopes: Chester is spending $250,000 for street improvements.

A law to prohibit strikes or lock-outs of railroad employees and that to protect the public from transportation "strips" was advocated by Senator Robinson, democrat of Arkansas, in an address in the Senate, in Washington, last Tuesday.

Senator Robinson's address was an address and a message. He proposed a permanent railroad policy of private ownership and operation of railroads, under street government supervision, and with a committee on wages and working conditions composed equally of employees and employers whose recommendations would be subject to final decision of the interstate commission. The Cummins bill, according to Senator Robinson, simply protects

TALKING ABOUT CHESTER.

The following from The Charlotte Observer should make every citizen of Chester throw back his shoulders and feel good. We have made a forward step and the world is glad to hear of our advancement—we are getting lots of good publicity now. Let's keep the old town going. We have the place but we have not been handling it right. Now that we have started, it ought not to be much trouble to keep things moving. The Observer's article follows: "Chester, S. C., is going forward in the way of municipal improvement in a manner becoming the progressive little city that it is. It was some time ago that the city took the first step taken when the people of that city voted this week to issue bonds in the sum of $100,000 for the improvement and extension of the waterworks plant. There is a feeling in the fact that the vote cast was 160 to 38, better than four to one."

SOMETHING NEW

For the first time in the history of The Chester News, it is today carrying a paid advertisement for a church, The First Baptist Church. This plan has been adopted by the board of churches throughout the country, freed from gross dispatches the churches have come to the conclusion that money spent for newspaper advertising is wisely spent. It is the desire of every church to get the people to come out and enjoy the service. ## Bond Election Carries.

The election to decide whether or not the City of Chester would issue $100,000 bonds for street improvements, held last Tuesday, resulted in a vote of 160 for the issue and 38 against it.

The work is to be done under the Outing property act, which provides that a petition, signed by the majority of the property owners on any street, must be presented to the city council asking that the work be done on that street. Such petition being presented, the property owners will pay one-half the cost of the work; the city to pay the other half. Under this plan it can be seen that each property owner pays for one-fourth the work done in front of his property.

The vote on issuing $100,000 for water works improvement and extension was as follows: 165 for and 17 against. This money will be used in improving the present water works system of Chester. The present plant is entirely too small for the amount of water being consumed in Chester. In fact, the city officials have been unable to run the waterworks this summer on account of the water works plant being unable to handle the situation.

The city council will hold a meeting at an early date to take up the question of issuing the bonds and also of securing a contractor and engineer to handle the improvements to be made in Chester. The council will also, doubtless, secure the services of some bonding house to look into the reliability of issuing bonds. This is usually done in order that municipalities may secure the top notch for their bonds.

It is hoped to get the work started in time to do a great deal in the business season this year. In discussing the matter, the city officials seemed inclined to give the contract to some large contractor who is in position to run the work to completion.

FIRST COTTON IN YORK.

York, S. C., Sept. 4.—The first bale of new cotton was ginned here Wednesday, having been grown on the farm of D. M. Benfield, a prominent planter of the Delphos section. Bales from different sections of the county are that cotton is opening rapidly and all the gins will soon be busy.

Experts or Theorists—Which?

The packing industry is intricate, complex—far more so than the railroads or the telegraph.

Every day multiplying needs of society increase its problems and multiplying responsibilities demand more of it.

Highly trained experts, specialists of years' experience, thinkers and creative men, devote their lives, their energies, their activities, to solving the problems of the packing industry and meeting its widening duties.

Swift & Company is not a few dozen packing plants, a few hundred branch houses, a few thousand refrigerator cars, and a few million dollars of capital, but an organization of such men. It is the experience, intelligence, initiative and activity which operates this physical equipment.

Can this intelligence, this experience, this initiative and creative effort which handles this business at a profit of only a fraction of a cent per pound from all sources, be fostered through the intervention of political theorists, however pure their purposes? Or be replaced by legislation? Does Congress really think that it can?

Let us send you a Swift "Dollar". It will interest you. Address Swift & Company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

YORK COUNTY

The following items in the Yorkville Enquirer will be of interest to Chester people:

Mr. W. R. Rogers has been "old" night policeman to succeed Lewis G. Ferguson, resigned. Mr. Rogers is a policeman of long years of experience and has often served here as a special officer.

J. L. Steele, of the Blainville section, who was recently elected chief of police here entered upon his new duties yesterday. Mr. Steele will not move his family to Yorkville before December.

The range of red spiders throughout the cotton fields of York county have been more severe this year than ever before. There are complaints from all sections of the county although it is not understood that all fields are infested. Many of the fields are still entirely free of the pest. In the case of others generally however, where red spider has been more or less active for years, it is doing more harm than ever. One of the best methods against red spider is the removal of hedge rows, old stumps and growths along terraces as to deprive it of comfortable quarters during the winter.

There was an informal discussion of the price that York county farmers are to pay for cotton picking this fall held yesterday during the meeting of the York County Cotton Pickers' Association. Chairman Johnson made it clear that the matter was not one for the association to take up at this time but suggested that an informal discussion of the matter might prove advantageous to the farmers. Mr. J. T. Crawford of McCombville said that he thought seventy-five cents per hundred was a fair price at which to start off the season. Mr. G. C. Graham of Yorkville No. 1 agreed with Mr. Crawford but thought the price might be increased to $1 per hundred about Nov. 1. It was the consensus of opinion that the problem was one which each community should settle for itself. Mr. R. T. Gables of Soyria said that there was some talk in his section of the cotton pickers organizing a sort of union and setting a price at which they would agree to pick.

Clever people are not yet sure whether or not they are to get a concrete road through the corporate limits of the town. It will be remembered that several weeks ago a majority of the property owners along Main street agreed to pay one-fourth the cost of such paving with the understanding that the balance of the cost be paid by the town and the Federal government. The county board of commissioners also endorsed the proposition. Major L. J. Campbell said Saturday that he had been unable to see J. R. Pennington, highway engineer who administers the Federal aid for road building and therefore it was not yet known whether or not the desired assistance could be secured from the Federal government.

YORK NEGRO JAILED ON CHARGE OF WIFE MURDER

York, Sept. 3.—Charged with the murder of his wife, Hannah Roseborough, who was instantly killed Sunday evening when a load of small shot fired at close range entered her face, John Roseborough, negro, of Bullock's Creek township, was committed to jail Monday. At an inquest conducted by Coroner J. H. McManus Monday morning Roseborough claimed that the killing was accidental, alleging that he and his wife were in a scuffle when the gun was discharged. While there were no eye-witnesses of the tragedy, doubt was cast on the man's version of the affair from the statements of others; there had been a quarrel between the two earlier in the day.

COUNTY COTTON ASSOCIATION IS FORMED AT YORK

Rock Hill, Sept. 3.—Approximately 500 representative farmers of the county met at York yesterday and perfected the organization of a county cotton association. The association begins work with 500 members. The membership is being increased, as committees to gain knowledge are actively engaged in canvassing for new members. Every farmer in the county is urged to join the association, as strength lies in numbers and the larger the membership the greater the good the association will be able to accomplish. The county association is a branch of the South Carolina association. The meeting of day was addressed by Dr. Z. B. Johnson, of this city, who acted as chairman; by Maj. W. B. Moore and J. S. Bree, who were forth the purpose of the association, namely to place the control of the price of cotton in the hands of the farmer.

Officers to direct the activities of the county association were elected yesterday. Dr. J. B. Johnson, temporary chairman while the association was in the process of organization, was chosen permanent chairman. James D. Grist of York was elected secretary-treasurer. D. P. Leahy, J. M. Brice, J. T. Crawford and Joe M. Taylor were appointed delegates to the State convention to be held within the near future, with John F. Williams, W. Hall Spencer, Dr. E. A. Crawford and J. B. Jenkins, Jr., as alternates.

MOTHER SHOTS THREE CHILDREN TO DEATH AND ENDS HER OWN LIFE ALSO

Father Returns Home to Find Wife and Two Children Dead and Third Fatally Wounded. Richmond, Va., Sept. 3.—Returning to his home on the outskirts of the city at 6 o'clock tonight, C. B. Slaughter, contractor, found that his wife had shot to death their 15-month-old baby boy and nine-year-old daughter, fatally wounded their third child and killed herself. "When the father left home at 6 o'clock this morning, he says, his wife was in the best of spirits, having prepared his breakfast. She told him about the operation of an automatic revolver he kept in the house, expressing fear of traps. He explained the use of the gun to her and went to work.

It is believed that the double murder and suicide was committed within an hour after the father left home. When he returned tonight he found Robert Mercer Slaughter, the baby boy, dead in his bed. Evelyn, aged nine, was also dead in bed and through the breast. The mother, with three bullet wounds in her chest, lay
